Meet Tommy Atkins
Friday 5th May, 7:30pm

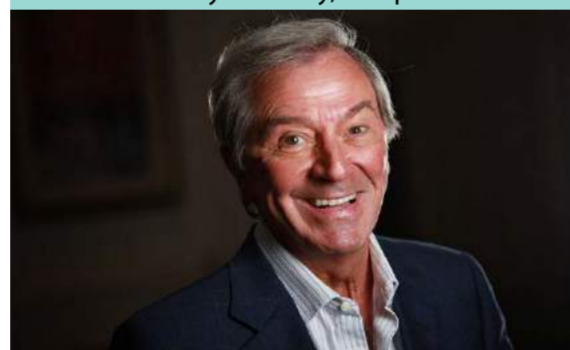

This brand new play written by playwright/actor Peter Gill details, through the eyes of a simple 'Tommy' the reality of war for those who actually fought it. In an astonishing solo performance, 'Meet Tommy Atkins' takes the audience through his war - a war that saw him fight at Ypres, Passendale, Loos and on the Somme and that took him to the depths of despair but also brought him unique comradeship that he would never find again. From the beginning of the war to the end, Private Tommy Atkins was there.
Tickets £10

China Crisis
Saturday 6th May, 8pm

After sell out tours of the UK and America in 2015, China Crisis return in support of their new album 'Autumn in the Neighbourhood', their first album of new material in 20 years. Eddie Lundon and Gary Daly are the founder members of the band which started in Kirkby, Merseyside back in 1979. Known for their string of hit singles, including African & White, Christian, Working with Fire and Steel, Black Man Ray and Wishful Thinking, the band will be performing these classics and more, alongside tracks from the new album.

SNADS present
The Memory of Water
Thurs 18th - Sat 20th May, 7:30pm

Three sisters come together for their mother's funeral. Their memories don't match. Their attitudes are not appropriate. They all have problems, not least with each other. Their mother made them what they are, but their focus is not on the dear departed - more on the left behind. Heart-warming, troubling, sad, and uncontrollably funny, this play won the Olivier Award for Best Comedy when it opened in London in 2000. Linda Cowley directs a strong cast in this adult play which includes some strong language. This amateur production of "The Memory of Water" is presented by special arrangement With SAMUEL FRENCH, LTD.

Burton
Thursday 15th June, 8pm

'Burton' vividly presents the life of the great Welsh actor in his own words from humble beginnings to Hollywood mega-stardom. Beautiful women, alcohol, wealth, stage and screen are the threads woven into this sad, happy, exuberant often hilarious one-man show. Drink was the only real anodyne to his deteriorating health and mental state, his doomed tempestuous relationship and his constant guilt over the abandonment of his family. Rhodri Miles takes on the role of the younger Burton.
